

DHR Visitors

DHR's first graders welcomed the Jewish Family Service's Wendy Strauss, Howard Grossman and Barbara Connor to their classroom on Thursday. The JFS visitors brought gifts of school supplies and shared the exciting news with us that they are opening a "school supply store" where teachers can shop free for school supplies for their classes! Thank you!!

Mazel Tov to...

...Rabbi Eli & Nomi Davidowitz on the birth of their daughter and to Grandparents Rabbi Baruch & Michal Davidowitz.

From the Principal Mrs. Lea Goldstein

DHR's Scholarship Auction is a week away!!! I am sure that you are wondering what you can do to help make the auction a most successful fundraiser. Nearly 90% of our families are receiving scholarships and /or major tuition discounts on tuition. Therefore, it is imperative that we have a very successful event. So, back to my question, "What can you do to help?" The answer is to please spread the word about our auction! We'll have amazing entertainment (Avi Frier from Florida will be our auctioneer and Magician/Comedian. He is an amazing magician – and hysterical! We'll have delicious food, fine wines and great packages up for bid, but... WE NEED PEOPLE TO SHOW UP FOR THE EVENT!! Help us spread the word! Please talk up the auction to your friends and neighbors. Please be sure to attend and bring some friends along! It's going to be a wonderful evening!

MAGIC. COMEDY. LAUGHTER. WINE. CHEESES. LOTS OF FOOD. DESSERTS. 100 AUCTION PACKAGES. FUN WITH FRIENDS. Don't miss it!

Packages for Soldiers

...A huge thank you to Mrs. Chayala Diskind for, once again spear-heading this special effort to show our appreciation to our soldiers. We sent over 50 beautiful packages and lots of cards! Thank you to the following families for donating packages (or money to cover the costs of the packages): Akkerman, Caro, Chilungu, Brea, Hon. Mark Eisenberg, Goldstein, Kozadayev and Kuyunov. Finally, thanks to Mr. Keith Freedman for organizing this special effort!
